This is an opportunity to buy work direct from a wide range of artists and discover a wealth of creative skills and techniques.

Exhibitors range from the novice to the established and with prices to match this really is an event for all art lovers whatever your budget... and entry is free!

There will also be the usual mouth watering selection of food stalls, plus 10% of all sales will go to local good causes, so you'll be helping the community as well.

Whether you're an art enthusiast or simply looking for a fun day out with family or friends, you won't want to miss this event.
